5. Dos and Don'ts for Bidders

S.No.	Scenario	Do's/ Don'ts
1.	In the event of making Payment through online	Do's <ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ It is the bidder's responsibility to ensure that online payments are made to the exact details as mentioned in the challan which are: □ Beneficiary account no: <client code> + <random number> □ Beneficiary IFSC Code: As prescribed by SBI Bank (this shall remain same across all tenders) □ Amount: As mentioned on the challan. It is specific for every tender/transaction □ Beneficiary bank branch: SBI Bank Ltd, CMS □ Beneficiary name: As per the challan □ For every tender, details in the challan are different and specific to that tender only. Bidder should not make use of a challan for making payment for another tenders' EMD □ It is advised that all the bidders make payment via- online at least one day in advance to the last day of tender submission as certain amount of time is required for settlement and various parties are involved. The payment may not be available for the bidder validation. In such cases bidder may not be able to submit the tender □ Bidder has to make only single payment against a challan as per the amount mentioned on the challan. □ Bidder must do the payment before tender validity gets expired.

		Don'ts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Bidder should not enter erroneous details while filling the online form at their bank. The following possibilities may arise: Incorrect IFSC code: - Transaction would be rejected and the amount would be refunded back to the bidders account
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Incorrect Beneficiary account number (<client code> + <random number>): - In case, the beneficiary account number mentioned is incorrect the transaction would be rejected and the bid would not be accepted. <input type="checkbox"/> Incorrect Amount mentioned: The amount would be rejected if the amount mentioned while making the payment is incorrect. Such cases will be captured as unreconciled transactions and will be auto refunded directly to bidder's account. <input type="checkbox"/> In the event of any discrepancy, payment would not be considered, and bidder would not be allowed to bid/participate. <input type="checkbox"/> Bidder is not supposed to use challan generated in one tender for payment against another tender since details in the challan are unique to the tender and bidder combination. <input type="checkbox"/> Bidder must not make multiple or split payments against a particular challan. Any split payment received against the same challan will be refunded back to the bidder. <input type="checkbox"/> Bidder would not be entitled to claim that he is deprived of participating in the tender because his funds are blocked with the division on account of incorrect payment made by the bidder
